

Tom McCann joins METOS Canada

November 26, 2020 - METOS[®] Canada welcomes Tom McCann to the team, in the role of Canadian Sales Manager. In this role, Tom will be developing relationships with dealers and farmers looking to learn more about how METOS Canada delivers the most accurate information from the field to make important decisions.

Tom has been involved in the agriculture industry for 30 years. Having worked on a mixed crop and livestock farm from a young age, a passion for agriculture was developed. This led him to attaining a Diploma in Agriculture and a Crop Science Degree, both from the University of Guelph.

Tom has senior sales experience with agriculture dealers and greatly enjoys the interaction with them. He has been involved with setting up distribution across Canada of Precision Ag products for a number of years with companies such as AgChem, AGCO, and Topcon. He thrives on using new technologies to maximize efficiencies in crop production.

Tom is excited to work with dealers across Canada in providing their growers the tools to achieve the best possible results using METOS Canada solutions.

For further information please contact support@metoscanada.ca